

LEGAL NOTICE

IN THE MATTER OF:
Skyelynn Kemp
Child of Chelsia Greathouse

CASE NO: C2025-0105

FILED: 04/14/25

John Doe putative father of the above child, whose last known address is Unknown, whose address is now unknown and cannot be ascertained with reasonable diligence, will take notice that a hearing has been set in the Licking County Court of Common Pleas, Juvenile Division, One North Park Place, Courthouse, Newark, Ohio on 05/23/2025 at 10:00 upon a complaint filed by the Licking County Job and Family Services, requesting Temporary Custody. The complaint alleges the child to be dependent for the reason that the child lacks proper parental care, support &/or supervision.

An adjudication of abuse, neglect, or dependency may affect your parental rights. An order of temporary custody will cause the removal of the child from your legal custody until the Court terminates the order of temporary custody or permanently divests or takes away from you all of your parental rights. This means that the Court may do the following:

Commit the child to the temporary custody of a public children services agency, a private child placing agency, either parent, a relative residing within or outside the state, or a probation officer for placement in a certified foster home or approved foster care.

An order of temporary custody may lead to an order of permanent custody which could permanently deprive you of all your parental rights and privileges.

Should the putative father wish to be represented by an attorney and is indigent, he should contact Deborah G. Lang, Ex-Officio Clerk, immediately at the court for a court appointed attorney. Please phone the court at (740) 670-5625.

John Doe is hereby given notice to be present at the hearing scheduled above.

Deborah G. Lang
